THE YOMIURI SHIMBUN

■ The history of The Yomiuri Shimbun Group

Confidential

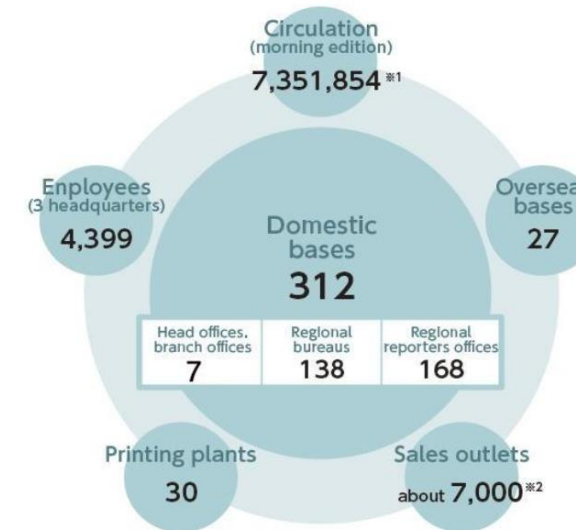

The Yomiuri Shimbun published its first edition in a small two-story building in 1874 in the Toranomon district of Tokyo. We built a strong nationwide sales network and rapidly expanded. Committed to accurate and prompt reporting and a moderate, sensible editorial line, we grew to be the newspaper with the world's largest circulation. In 1994, the daily circulation of our morning edition topped 10 million copies, cementing our position as Japan's foremost newspaper.

As a news medium, by producing and publishing newspapers for many years, we have fulfilled our social mission of fostering sound public opinion, which underpins democracy. To enable us to steadily continue in this role, we have diversified and strengthened our business platform through businesses beyond newspaper publishing.

As Japan's most trusted media group, the Yomiuri Shimbun Group will continue to be committed to working together with the public.

Kishida may axe Abe faction members from govt, party posts

Prime Minister Shinzo Abe's faction members may be removed from government posts and party positions, according to Prime Minister Fumio Kishida. Kishida is expected to announce his intention to reshuffle the cabinet and party posts in the coming weeks. This move is seen as a significant step towards consolidating power and moving away from the Abe legacy. The reshuffle is expected to include the removal of several members from the Abe faction, including prominent figures like Taro Yamamoto and Shigeru Ishiba. Kishida's actions are seen as a clear signal of his intention to establish his own leadership and direction for the LDP and the government.

Iran reportedly hit by Israeli drone; Tehran plays down incident

Iran's air defense forces shot down an Israeli drone that reportedly entered Iranian airspace near Tehran. The incident occurred on Saturday, April 20, 2024. Iranian officials stated that the drone was shot down in the northern part of the country. The Israeli military has not confirmed the incident, but it is widely believed that the drone was part of a reconnaissance mission. The incident has raised concerns about the stability of the region and the potential for further escalation between Iran and Israel. Tehran has played down the incident, claiming it was a routine air defense exercise.

Stadium, transport hub planned for Tsukiji site

The Tokyo metropolitan government is planning a major redevelopment project for the Tsukiji site. The project includes the construction of a new stadium and a transport hub. The stadium is expected to be completed by 2028 and will have a seating capacity of 50,000. The transport hub will include a new station and connecting lines. The project is seen as a key part of the city's regeneration efforts and is expected to bring significant economic and social benefits to the area. The stadium will be used for various sports events, including baseball, soccer, and basketball. The transport hub will improve connectivity and reduce travel time for residents and visitors.

Ex-Olympic minister may have received over ¥100 mil.

A former Olympic minister is suspected of receiving over ¥100 million in undisclosed payments. The payments are believed to be related to the minister's role in the Tokyo 2020 Olympic bid. The payments were made by a company that was involved in the bid process. The minister has denied receiving any such payments and has stated that he has no financial interest in the company. The case has raised questions about the transparency of the bid process and the potential for corruption. The Tokyo Olympic Committee is currently investigating the matter.

Ohtani set to sign record $700 mil. deal with Dodgers

Shane Bieber is expected to sign a record-breaking $700 million contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The contract is set to be signed in the coming weeks. Bieber is one of the top pitchers in the MLB and is expected to continue his dominance. The Dodgers are looking to strengthen their pitching staff and are willing to pay a premium for Bieber's services. The contract is seen as a landmark deal in the history of MLB free agency. Bieber's performance has been exceptional, and he is expected to continue to perform at a high level for the Dodgers.

5 Japanese survive Pakistan suicide blast attack

Five Japanese citizens survived a suicide bombing in Pakistan. The attack occurred in the city of Islamabad. The victims were Japanese tourists who were caught in the blast. The Japanese government is providing medical assistance to the survivors and is working to identify the perpetrators. The attack has raised concerns about the security of tourists in Pakistan. The Japanese government is urging citizens to exercise caution when traveling to Pakistan.

Israeli tanks reach center of Khan Younis

Israeli tanks have reached the center of Khan Younis in Gaza. The tanks are part of a military operation to clear the area of Hamas fighters. The operation has resulted in the deaths of several civilians and the displacement of many others. The Israeli military has stated that it is necessary to clear the area of Hamas fighters in order to ensure the safety of the civilian population. The operation has also resulted in the destruction of several buildings and infrastructure.

PokéPark KANTO to be established in Yomiuriland

The PokéPark KANTO project is set to be established in Yomiuriland. The project is a collaboration between The Pokémon Company and the Yomiuri Shimbun Group. The project will include the construction of a new PokéPark and the development of new Pokémon games. The PokéPark KANTO is expected to be completed by 2028 and will be a major attraction for fans of the Pokémon franchise. The project is seen as a key part of the Yomiuri Shimbun Group's strategy to expand its entertainment offerings.

Disciplinary action a window into power struggle within the LDP

Disciplinary action within the LDP provides a window into a power struggle. The LDP is currently facing a leadership crisis, and disciplinary action is being taken against several members. The disciplinary action is seen as a sign of a power struggle between different factions within the party. The LDP is a major political party in Japan, and its internal dynamics are closely watched. The disciplinary action is expected to have significant implications for the party's future.

TSUMUGU Project -Inheriting the Beauty of Japan-

Find arts that inherit Japan's beauty to the next generations

This project was announced in November 2018 for the purpose of inheriting Japan's arts, including arts and crafts related to the Imperial Household and national treasures and important cultural assets to the future and introduce them to the world in a collaboration between the Agency for Cultural Affairs, Imperial Household Agency and the Yomiuri Shimbun. Funds collected from corporate sponsors are used to support the restoration of cultural assets such as paintings and Buddhist statues, and the works, including the repaired cultural assets, are displayed at a special exhibition at the National Museum. The project also operates a portal site (Japanese and English versions) to promote the charm of Japanese traditional culture not only domestically but also overseas.

"Action! Dentou-Bunka" Project: Celebrating the Beauty of Traditional Japanese Culture

Experience the delicate, fine artistic techniques and allure of Japan's traditional culture, which continue attracting the world

This is a project by the Yomiuri Shimbun to promote traditional Japanese culture and introduce the allure of Japan's traditional crafts and performing arts. This project can provide such a special moment as a dinner inviting the holders of important intangible cultural properties (Living National Treasures) at a special venue, where participants can appreciate the exhibited craftworks and lectures by guest speakers while experiencing the culinary delight of every season. Aiming to raise interest and promote an understanding of Japanese culture, this project also carries out a variety of activities, such as lectures by cultural figures and traditional performing arts events.

Kyo-yuzen dyeing: Toki HATA

Kyo-yuzen dyeing, which embodies the aesthetic sense of beauty in Japan, is said to be a synonym for “kimono.” Hata is the third generation of the renowned dyeing family, the Hatas.

Her grandfather was a living national treasure who created furisode, a long-sleeve kimono, for Princess Diana, and her father was designated as an intangible cultural asset of Kyoto Prefecture, she is popular for her style of lyrically depicting the scenery of the four seasons.

Katazome stencil dyeing: Masayuki ISA

Katazome is a traditional dyeing technique that played an important part in kimono culture for many years, in which pictures and patterns are carved onto pattern paper and colored onto cloth or washi paper like a print. Instructed by Isa who is also a Japanese painter, you can print Isa patterns as original patterns inherited by the Isa family to furoshiki and kimono. You can also choose from other patterns as motifs taken from Ukiyoe.
